

Surveying near future Ontario Line stations at Exhibition, King-Bathurst, Queen-Spadina, Osgoode and Queen

Starting as early as January 17, 2023

What is happening?

In order to connect more people and places throughout Toronto, work is underway to deliver the new Ontario Line from the Science Centre to Exhibition Station.

Work crews will be surveying buildings near the future Exhibition, King-Bathurst and Queen-Spadina, Osgoode, and Queen sites in preparation for future construction. This work will be ongoing for four weeks.

Timing

- Scheduled start: January 17, 2023
- Estimated completion: February 12, 2023
- Days: Monday to Friday
- Hours: Approximately 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

What to expect

- Work crews will be in the area to conduct survey work, that involves capturing 3-D scans of area buildings.
- Buildings scheduled for survey are near the future Ontario Line station sites at Exhibition, King-Bathurst, Queen-Spadina, Osgoode or Queen.
- This work is being completed to capture the dimensions and specifications of buildings as part of construction planning and design.
- The survey works will be mainly done in the interior of buildings. When scanning the exterior of buildings, the survey crew will use a scanner mounted to a tripod on the sidewalk.
- Equipment will not be left on site outside work hours.
- There are no expected impacts to pedestrians, cyclists, or traffic.
- Work may be delayed or rescheduled due to inclement weather or unforeseen circumstances.
