

Extended: Holly Street Closure at Eglinton Avenue

Monday, April 17, 2023

What Work Is Taking Place?

As early as Monday, April 17, 2023, Holly Street will be closed at Eglinton Avenue East for approximately fourteen (14) weeks to facilitate utility upgrades at Eglinton Station. The closure will be in place 24-hours a day, seven (7) days a week. A work zone will be erected on Holly Street south of Eglinton Avenue East. Construction activities are expected to take place between 7:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. and will include excavation, wet and dry utility installations, concrete works, backfilling, and paving. For more information, please review the complete notice below or visit www.thecrosstown.ca for more information.

What to Expect

No vehicular access between Eglinton Avenue East and Holly Street. Noise from construction activity, including trucks, breaking of concrete and asphalt, utility work, and use of heavy equipment can be expected. Construction vehicles and trucks will stage within work zones and traffic tapers. Traffic barrels, fencing, signage, and other equipment will be erected to delineate work zones. Occasionally, the use of a hydro-vacuum truck, jackhammer, and/or compaction roller will be required.
