What is happening?

- Underground utility relocation at the bottom of Pirandello Street and south of Pirandello, extending west toward Hanna Avenue to prepare for the construction of the new Exhibition Station.
- As part of the relocation of underground utilities, a trench for new conduits will be dug and filled with concrete to make the entire area south of Pirandello Street.

When will work begin and how will it impact me?

- Electrical and trench work is scheduled to begin as early as September 18, 2023. The work will last for approximately 13 weeks.
- Work will take place weekdays between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. Crews will begin to arrive on site as early as 6 a.m. There is no planned overnight or weekend work.
- Entrances to condo buildings, parking garages, and other services will remain accessible.
- The south end of Pirandello St and King West Laneway will be closed along with a small section of sidewalk on the west side of Pirandello St. A pedestrian passageway between Pirandello St and King West Laneway will be maintained.
- There will be no street parking on the west side of Pirandello Street during this time.
- A portion of the sidewalk connecting Pirandello Street and King West Laneway will be closed for up to 10 weeks. Entrance / exits to condo units along the sidewalk will remain open and through King West Laneway.
- The east section of the laneway connecting Hanna Ave and King West Laneway will be closed for up to nine weeks.
- The work area will be fenced off and will be inaccessible to pedestrians.

What can I expect?

- Construction vehicles, trucks, and equipment will be visible on site. Necessary equipment and trailers will also be brought into the work area.
- Trucks and other equipment will be using the south end of both Pirandello St and King West Laneway to enter and exit the work site as needed.
- Noise and vibration associated with construction and related vehicles should be expected.
- Work may be postponed or rescheduled due to unforeseen circumstances.
- All the necessary construction permits have been obtained.
