

Street light relocation near Queen Street West and Simcoe Street

Expected start date: As early as October 24, 2023

Expected duration: Up to 2 weeks

Hours of work: Daytime from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Map of work area:

What is happening?

- Street lighting is being temporarily relocated near Queen Street West and Simcoe Street to make way for the future Osgoode station.
- Crews will be relocating two (2) streetlights on the west side of Simcoe Street to the east side of Simcoe Street to make space for future construction.
- Four (4) nearby light fixtures on Queen Street West will be upgraded to the newest Toronto Hydro street light standard.

What to expect

- The southbound parking lane and northbound bike lane on Simcoe Street will be closed as indicated in the map above.
- The westbound curb lane on Queen Street will be closed.
- Work areas will be secured to ensure public safety. They will also be clearly marked with signage.
- Work will take place during the day, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is expected to last five days.
- Closures will be reopened after each shift and set up again the following workday.
- Area residents and businesses near the sites will hear noise from diggers creating holes to place the poles, and may see hydro trucks in the area.
- Flaggers will be used to ensure the safety of pedestrians, vehicles and cyclists.
- Work may be delayed, rescheduled or extended due to weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.
