

Frequent Shifts in Traffic and Pedestrian Movements at Eglinton Avenue and Yonge Street

Through until late-January 2024

What Work is Taking Place?

Through until approximately late-January 2024, there will be frequent shifts in traffic and pedestrian movements at Eglinton Avenue and Yonge Street as crews work to complete restoration activities in the area. Upcoming construction activities include but are not limited to utility installations, backfilling, road, curb, sidewalk and bike lane restorations, traffic signal installation and activation, and landscaping. A traffic control personnel(s) and/or Paid Duty Officer(s) will be present for work when required. Following the completion of this work, short term lane reductions may be required on Eglinton Avenue to facilitate special activities.

What to Expect

Through until approximately late-January 2024, there will be frequent shifts in traffic and pedestrian movements at Eglinton Avenue and Yonge Street as crews work to complete restoration activities. Overnight noise from construction activity can be expected. Concrete barriers, fencing, and signage will be in place to delineate the work zones. One lane of traffic in each direction will be maintained at all times on Eglinton Avenue. Expect delays while traveling through the area.
