

Update on Corktown Archaeological Investigations

Expected start date: January 25, 2024

Expected completion: Late Spring 2024

Hours of work: Monday to Saturday from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Map of Work Area:

What is happening?

- Archaeological investigations, required by the Ministry of Citizenship and Culture (MCM), have been completed on the north site. The winter tent was removed on January 19, 2024.
- Investigations will continue at the south site location (265 Front Street East) and a winter tent will be installed.
- The tent is needed to keep the soil warm and dry so excavations can continue, while protecting the site from winter elements.

What to expect

- Archaeological crews will be working on the south site from Monday to Saturday between the hours of 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. There will be no Sunday work.
- Noise levels are not expected to increase from current levels.
- Indigenous groups are aware of the ongoing work and will continue to provide archaeological monitoring as available.
- All roads and sidewalks in the area will remain open.
- All necessary construction permits have been obtained.
- Work may be delayed or rescheduled due to unforeseen delays or weather conditions.
- Additional information will be shared as work progresses.
- For more information about upcoming station work please see Metrolinx.com/Ontarioline or sign up for the e-newsletter.
