

Updated: Overnight Line Painting Works on Eglinton Avenue West and Dufferin Street

Sunday, February 11, 2024

What Work is Taking Place?

As early as Sunday, February 11, 2024, crews will be performing line painting works on Eglinton Avenue West and Dufferin Street by the Fairbank Station's Main and Secondary Entrances. To facilitate this work, lane reductions will be in place on Eglinton Avenue West and Dufferin Street. One lane of traffic in each direction will be maintained at all times. Access to all properties will be maintained at all times. This work is expected to begin at 9:00 p.m. and will take approximately eight (8) hours to complete. The contingency date for this work is Monday, February 12, 2024. Upon completion of this work, short term lane reductions may be required to facilitate special activities.

What to Expect

Expect delays while travelling through the area. One lane of traffic in each direction will be maintained at all times. Concrete barriers, fencing, and wayfinding signage will be in place to delineate the work zones. Traffic control personnel and/or a Paid Duty Officer will be present while traffic changes are taking place.
