

Updated: Periodic Daytime and Overnight Lane Reductions for Road Restoration Works at Eglinton Station

As early as Monday, April 15, 2024

What Work is Taking Place?

As early as Monday, April 15, 2024, crews at Eglinton Station will be performing road milling, paving, and line painting works at Yonge Street and Eglinton Avenue. Work will take place during the daytime and overnight. To complete milling, paving, and line painting works safely, eastbound and westbound traffic on Eglinton Avenue will be periodically reduced to one lane in each direction between Duplex Avenue and 55 Eglinton Avenue East. Northbound and southbound traffic on Duplex Avenue will be periodically reduced to one lane in each direction at Eglinton Avenue West. Northbound and southbound traffic on Yonge Street will be periodically reduced to one lane in each direction between Roehampton Avenue and 2221 Yonge Street. All turns at the intersection will remain restricted. Roads and driveways on Eglinton Avenue between Duplex Avenue and 55 Eglinton Avenue East will have restricted access for approximately four (4) hours for the duration of the work in the immediate area. Roads and driveways on Yonge Street between Roehampton Avenue and 2221 Yonge Street will have restricted access for approximately four (4) hours for the duration of the work in the immediate area. Roads and driveways on Duplex Avenue between 415 Duplex Avenue and the Eglinton Station Main Entrance will have restricted access for approximately four (4) hours for the duration of the work in the immediate area. One lane of traffic in each direction will be maintained at all times on Eglinton Avenue. This work is expected to take place for approximately ten (10) days. Upon completion of this work, short term periodic lane reductions may be required to facilitate special activities.
