What is happening?

- To prepare for construction of the future Ontario Line subway at Queen and Spadina, construction crews will be installing plywood and fencing around the future North station sites, to protect the public from the work zone.
- Existing pedestrian walkways on Queen Street West and Spadina Avenue will be reconfigured or replaced in preparation for the next phase on construction.

What can I expect?

- This work is expected to start at the future North station site as early as April 15, 2024. Work hours are 9:00 p.m. to 5 a.m.
- On Queen Street West and Spadina Avenue, lane restrictions will be in place while crews are working in the area, as highlighted in the map above.
- Pedestrian access through the area is expected to be maintained during all phases of work, as indicated on the map above.

- There are no expected impacts to transit services, and access to local residential and commercial units will be maintained.
- Community members will see trucks delivering plywood hoarding materials, and crews working to install the new barriers. Some noise may occur from construction equipment, including front-end loaders, trucks, and hammers.
- All the necessary construction permits have been obtained.
- Work may be postponed, extended or rescheduled due to unforeseen circumstances.
