

West Toronto Railpath - North & South Update

Project Overview

GO service is expanding to serve you better - with more frequent service, more stations, cleaner technology, and more connections. Metrolinx will be building a new track on the Kitchener GO line, next to the West Toronto Railpath. Part of this work will include construction of a new entrance to Bloor GO Station, a new community park at Ernest Avenue, and a realignment of the Railpath, on behalf of the City of Toronto.

What You Need to Know

The West Toronto Railpath detour North of Bloor St. W. to Ernest Avenue will remain in place until Summer 2025, for Construction to continue the Randolph Avenue Pedestrian Pavilion. The West Toronto Railpath South of Bloor St. W. Will be opening Fall 2024.

WHAT TO EXPECT - RAILPATH NORTH

- The Railpath North detour will extend from Ernest Avenue to the Bloor Street pedestrian bridge until Summer 2025
- Barrier-free access to the GO Station and Railpath will be available at the Union-Pearson (UP) Express entrance on the North side of Bloor Street.
- A temporary ramp is installed at Ernest Avenue to access the platform, and directional signage will be installed to guide you through the detour route.
