

UPDATE: Utility investigations and monitoring work near Queen Street West & Yonge Street

Expected start date: As early as the week of July 8, 2024

Expected duration: Up to two weeks

Hours of work: Weekdays from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Map of work area:

What is happening

- In preparation for Ontario Line construction activities at the future Queen Station, crews will be conducting investigative utility works on Queen Street West, along the sidewalk in front of Hudson's Bay.
- Construction crews will be testing utilities and sewers within the construction site, in the areas shown in yellow and black on the map (see left).
- To conduct the work, crews will drill into the sidewalk to inspect utilities and sewers underground. Once complete, the drill areas will be restored.

What to expect

- Work is expected to start the week of July 8, 2024 and will take place on weekdays, between 7:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. The work is expected to take up to two weeks to complete.
- During this work, pedestrian access will be temporarily modified; pedestrians will be detoured around the work zone.
- Access to commercial and residential buildings will be maintained, and TTC entrances will be accessible at all times.

- Residents and businesses near the work zones will hear noise from heavy equipment including a hydrovac truck, drill rig, and saw cutter.
- All the necessary construction permits have been obtained.
- Work may be postponed or rescheduled due to unforeseen circumstances.
- For more information about upcoming station work please see metrolinx.com/Ontarioline or sign up for the e-newsletter.
