

Pedestrian detour at 1 Queen Street East

Expected start date: As early as September 20, 2024

Expected duration: Up to March 20, 2025

What is happening?

As part of construction activities for the Ontario Line station at Queen, the sidewalk in front of 1 Queen Street East will be temporarily closed and pedestrians will be detoured through the 1 Queen Street East building (refer to map).

What to expect:

- The sidewalk closure is expected to begin as early as September 20, 2024, and will be in place for approximately six months.
- The sidewalk may close in phases, first east of the emergency fire exit and then west of the emergency fire exit.
- During this time, pedestrians will detour through the 1 Queen Street East building.
- Wayfinding signage will be in place to help pedestrians navigate the area.
- The fire exit access will be maintained for emergencies.
- During this timeframe, the sidewalk may occasionally and temporarily reopen to facilitate public access.

Note:

- Work may be delayed, rescheduled, or extended due to weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.
