

Notice of Pedestrian Crosswalk Closure at Queen Street West

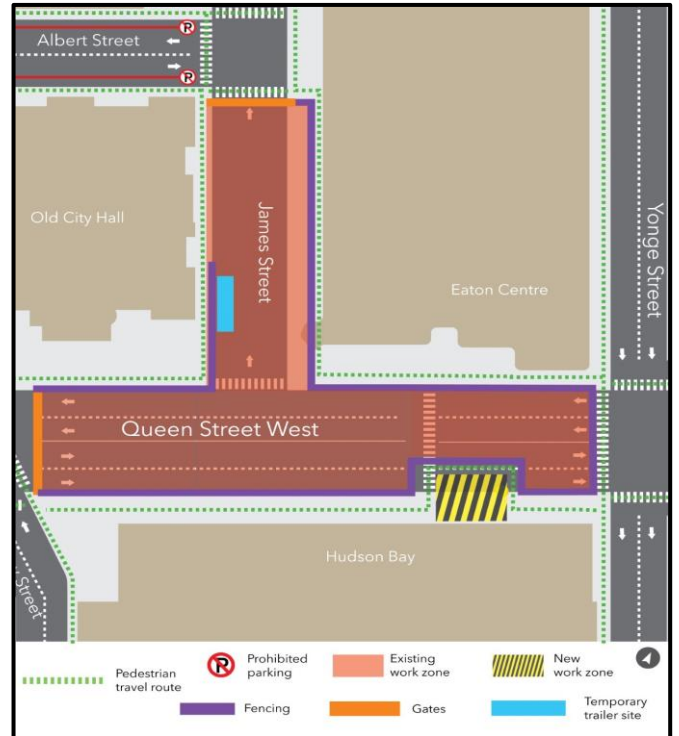

Expected start date: As early as October 25, 2024

What is happening?

- The pedestrian crosswalk between the north and south sides of Queen Street will be closed for safety, as construction work continues in the area.
- Work to close the crosswalk is expected to start overnight on October 25, 2024 with the closure in place as of October 26, 2024.
- This closure will be in place for the duration of construction of the future Queen Station.

What to expect

- As of the evening of October 25, 2024, pedestrians will not be able to cross between the north and south sides of Queen Street West, between Yonge Street and Bay Street.
- Pedestrians can use Yonge Street to cross between the north and south sides of the street.
- Crews will work overnight from 7:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. to complete this work, with the newly configured area in place as of the morning of October 26, 2024.
- Wayfinding signage will be in place along the work zone to direct pedestrians in the area.
- All necessary construction permits have been obtained.

Note:

- Work may be delayed, rescheduled, or extended due to weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.
- Visit metrolinx.com/OntarioLineConstruction for more information on work happening in your community.
