

Sidewalk Closure at De Grassi Street

Expected start date: As early as Wednesday, December 18, 2024

Expected duration: For approximately eight months

What is happening?

- As early as Wednesday, December 18, 2024, the sidewalk on the east side of De Grassi Street between Queen Street East and Bruce Mackey Park will be closed to prepare for piling and access road construction.
- The sidewalk closure will remain in place for approximately eight months.
- All traffic lanes will be maintained and all street parking on De Grassi Street will remain open. All sidewalks on Queen Street East will be open.
- Concrete blocks and wood hoarding will be installed along the east sidewalk on De Grassi Street to separate the rail corridor. Installation will take place during the daytime. The installation work will take approximately one day to complete.

What to expect

- The sidewalk on the east side of De Grassi Street will be closed.
- A temporary four-metre-tall barrier made of concrete blocks and wood will be installed along the sidewalk
- Advance signage will be in place to notify pedestrians of the closure.

- Equipment and machinery will operate from within the rail corridor.
- Traffic control personnel will be present to assist vehicles and pedestrians.
- Minimal noise is expected during this work.
- Work may be delayed due to weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.

About the project

- 15.6-kilometre subway line that will make it faster and easier to travel within Toronto and beyond.
- 15 stops and more than 40 transit connections, including GO, TTC, and more.
- Approximately 30 minutes from one end of the line to the other.
- 28,000 fewer cars on the road each day.
