

Overnight utilities and cable relocation work on Queen Street West between Yonge and Victoria Streets

Expected start date: As early as December 19, 2024

Duration: Weekdays for approximately 1 week

Hours of work: Overnight, from 7:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m.

What is happening?

- To facilitate construction of the new Ontario Line subway station at Queen, crews must shift the location of the existing utilities and cable lines that are in conflict with the building footprint of the future station.
- To complete this work safely, crews will be completing relocation works overnight.
- Work will take place within the closed worksite and no pedestrian or traffic impacts are expected.

What to expect

- Crews will use various pieces of equipment to complete this work, including a hydrovac truck.
- Area resident and businesses can expect to hear noise from the hydrovac truck, as well as other construction equipment. Crews will take care to minimize noise wherever possible.
- Work will be completed during overnight shifts (7:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m.) to ensure safety of crews performing works within the site.
- Work may be delayed or postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.

About the Ontario Line

- 15.6-kilometre subway line that will make it faster and easier to travel within Toronto and beyond.
- 15 stops and more than 40 connections to other transit, including GO train, subway, LRT, streetcar, and bus lines.
- Less than 30 minutes from one end of the line to the other.
- 28,000 fewer car trips each day.
