

Update: Notice of pedestrian detour on Queen Street West

Expected start date: As early as January 3rd, 2025.

Duration: Extended to March 2025

Map of impacted area

What is happening?

- To facilitate construction of the new Ontario Line subway station at Queen, crews must perform construction works, including installation of waterproofing.
- This work will temporarily impact the south sidewalk of Queen Street West, between Bay Street and Yonge Street.
- To complete this work safely pedestrians will be detoured along the south side of Queen Street West adjacent to the work zone. (refer to map)
- The detour is extended to March 2025.

What to expect

- Pedestrians will be detoured on the south side of Queen Street West, from Bay Street to Yonge Street.
- Access to Hudson's Bay Centre and TTC will be maintained.
- Emergency exits will not be blocked and will remain accessible.
- Wayfinding signage will be in place to direct pedestrians.

Note:

- Work may be delayed, rescheduled, or extended due to weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.
- Visit metrolinx.com/OntarioLineConstruction for more information on work happening in your community.
