

Etobicoke Creek Bridge Replacement

Trail Closure March 17-31st

 Please note dates may change due to inclement weather or unforeseeable circumstances*

Project Overview

Due to current Metrolinx work on the Etobicoke Creek Railway Bridge, the Etobicoke Creek Trail under the bridge will be closed for one week between March 17 and March 31. More information on the exact dates of the closure will be communicated once confirmed.

The Etobicoke Creek Trail under the bridge will be shifted to allow work to proceed. After the shift, the trail under the bridge will remain open, although any necessary closures will be communicated in advance.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- The Etobicoke Creek Trail under the bridge in Maurice J. Breen Park will be closed for one week between March 17 and March 31.
- More information on the exact dates of the closure will be communicated once confirmed.
- The Etobicoke Creek Trail under the bridge will be shifted to allow work to proceed. After the shift, the trail under the bridge will remain open, although any necessary closures will be communicated in advance.

HOURS OF WORK

- The trail will be closed for one week between March 17 and 31 for this work.

TRAFFIC DETAILS

- No lane closures are expected.
- There will be large machinery and equipment entering the site from Forty Third Street.

TEMPORARY SCAFFOLDING

- After the path is shifted, hoarding will be installed on the trail under the bridge to protect pedestrians and cyclist.

PEDESTRIAN DETAILS

- There will be no access under the bridge during the closure.
- The path from Forty Third Street to the Etobicoke Creek Trail is already closed for the duration of construction. A temporary path has been built nearby and there is access through the park to get to the Etobicoke Creek Trail.
