

Update: Road Closure at Simcoe Street

Expected dates: As of February 11, 2025

- Weekdays: Overnight, from 9:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m.
- Weekends: 24-hours, beginning 9:00 p.m. on Fridays until 5:00 a.m. on Mondays

Expected duration: Up to late March 2025

What is happening:

As part of the ongoing construction of the Ontario Line and the future Osgoode station, crews will be delivering materials to complete the acoustic shelter in support of work on site. To do so safely, Simcoe Street will be closed from Queen Street West to the laneway directly south of the intersection.

What to expect:

- Simcoe Street will remain closed to all traffic from Queen Street West to the laneway located south of the intersection, as shown on the map.
- The closure will take place overnight from 9:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. during weekdays, and 24-hours beginning at 9:00 p.m. on Fridays until 5:00 a.m. on Mondays.
- This traffic closure is expected to be in place until late March 2025.
- Pedestrian access will be maintained on the east side of Simcoe Street and on Queen Street West, with assistance from a flagger person.
- During this work, traffic will be detoured to Duncan Street and the laneway to access Simcoe Street.
- Trucks accessing the construction site will continue to do so from Queen Street West.
- Bicycle lane access to Simcoe Street may remain open during the day.
- NOTE: As early as February 21, 2025, Toronto Hydro crews will also be conducting work in the area. This work is required to provide temporary power to the work sites during station construction.
 - Work will take place within the existing closed Simcoe Street on weekends beginning Fridays at 9:00 p.m. and continue until Monday at 6:00 a.m. There will also be work at the Simcoe and Richmond Street intersection.
 - More information will be shared in a separate notice.
