

Utilities work at the Osgoode south station site

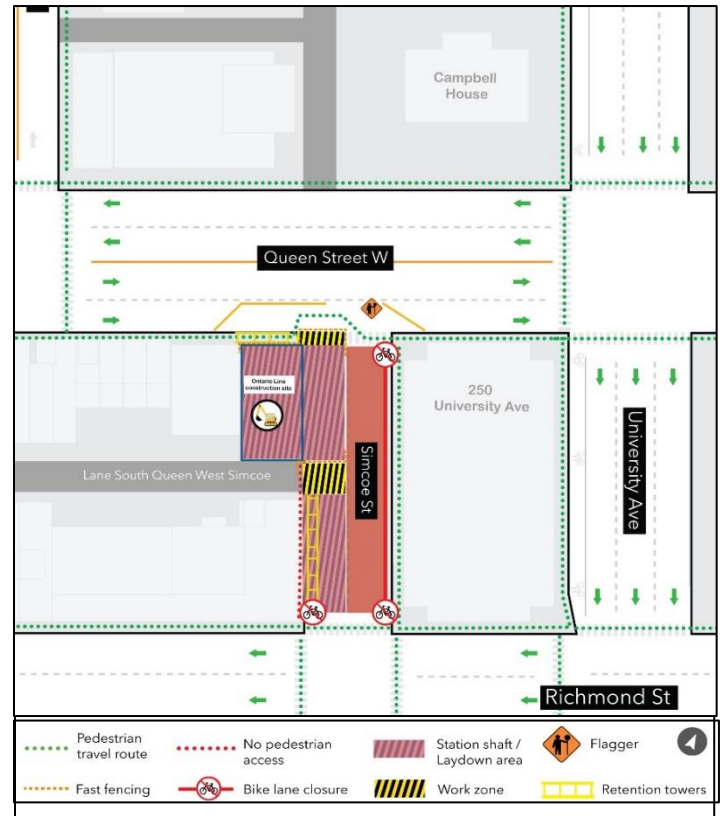

Expected start date: As early as February 18, 2025

Duration: Up to March 13, 2025

Hours of work: Overnight, weeknights and weekends (as required) from 8:30 p.m. to 5:30 a.m.

What is happening?

- To facilitate ongoing construction of the new Ontario Line subway station interchange at Osgoode Station, crews must re-line the existing water service line at Simcoe Street between Queen Street West and the laneway to the south to protect the utility during future construction.
- Crews will also connect a temporary water connection for use by the construction site.
- This work will take place overnight from 8:30 p.m. to 5:30 a.m. weeknights and weekends (as required) from as early as February 18, 2025, and will take approximately one month to complete.
- While work will take place within the Ontario Line worksite at Queen Street West and Simcoe Street, area road closures are required to facilitate the safe completion of this work.
- The following closures will be in place:
 - The eastbound curb lane on Queen Street West will be closed overnight with access reinstated between 5:30 a.m. and 8:30 p.m.
 - Eastbound traffic on Queen Street West will be reduced to one lane in front of the 205 Queen Street West.
 - Simcoe Street will remain closed overnight from 9:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. during weekdays (Monday to Friday) and fully closed for 48-hour period (Saturday and Sunday) during weekends as it was previously communicated.
 - The access to Simcoe from the laneway to south of Queen Street West will be closed.

What to expect

- Flag-personnel may be on site to ensure the safety of pedestrians.
- Area residents and businesses can expect to hear noise from hydrovac trucks or drills used to assess underground utilities and ground conditions, necessary for worker and infrastructure safety. Crews will take measures to minimize noise impacts wherever possible.

- Work may be postponed, extended or rescheduled due to unforeseen circumstances.
