

Overnight concrete pouring at De Grassi Street and Queen Street

Expected start date: As early as Tuesday, August 5, 2025

Expected duration: Approximately one week

Hours of work: Monday to Friday, between 6 p.m. – 6 a.m.

What is happening?

- As early as Tuesday, August 5, 2025, concrete pouring will take place within the rail corridor next to De Grassi Street between Wardell Street and Queen Street East. This work will take approximately one week to finish.
- Work will take place overnight from Monday to Friday between 6 p.m. – 6 a.m.
- Concrete pouring is required to support the new retaining walls being built along the corridor.
- Overnight work is required to provide enough time for the concrete to harden between day shifts.

What to expect

- Concrete trucks will be used to pour concrete into the retaining walls.
- Construction equipment will access the rail corridor from the access roads at Dundas Street East and Queen Street East.
- Noise from construction equipment including concrete trucks and other machinery can be expected.
- Noise and vibration monitors are in place to ensure acceptable levels are maintained.
- Temporary noise barriers are in place to minimize noise from this activity.
- Construction equipment and materials will be properly secured within the work zones.
- Work may be delayed due to weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.

About the project

- 15.6-kilometre subway line that will make it faster and easier to travel within Toronto and beyond.
- 15 stops and more than 40 transit connections, including GO, TTC, and more.
- Approximately 30 minutes from one end of the line to the other.
- 28,000 fewer cars on the road each day.
